

Rochelle Gutiérrez

(b. mid 1900s)

Gutiérrez is a full professor of education at the University of Illinois (in Urbana-Champaign). Her research uses longitudinal ethnographic studies to examine the ways in which race, class, and language affect mathematics teaching and learning. She was a Fulbright scholar in Zacatecas, México (2004). Gutiérrez has received the AMTE Outstanding Mathematics Teacher Educator Award for Excellence in Scholarship (2011) and the AERA Division K Innovations in Research on Equity and Social Justice in Teacher Education Award (2020). She received the Iris M. Carl Equity and Leadership Award (2016) from TODOS: Mathematics for All, for significant contributions to the quality of mathematics education provided to underserved students.

This poster is part of the EvenQuads project, which combines innovative mathematical card games with learning about amazing women mathematicians. The project celebrates the 50th anniversary of the Association for Women in Mathematics.
