Raman Parimala was born in India and earned her PhD from Bombay University (1976). She is currently a Distinguished Professor at Emory University. Her research is in quadratic forms, Galois cohomology, and algebraic groups. She has published over 100 papers and advised 10 PhD theses. She was an invited speaker at the International Congress of Mathematicians (ICM) in 1994 and 2010 and gave the AWM-AMS Emmy Noether Lecture at the Joint Mathematics Meetings in 2013. Parimala is a fellow of all three Indian academies of science and of the AMS (2013). In 2020 she became one of 11 Indian female scientists, and the only mathematician, to have a chair at an Indian institution named in their honor.
